

Melissa Jerome

Melissa has been an early childhood educator for over 18 years. She holds her Early Childhood credential from the AMS (American Montessori Society) and is also a certified provider of Timbernook in the Mount Washington Valley. She attended UNH and earned her B.S. in Recreation Management and Policy with an emphasis on Therapeutic Recreation. All her schooling has helped fuel her passion for educating young children and families about the positive effects of nature and play for all!

She has lived in the Valley for the past 15 years with her husband Tony and their two daughters. They enjoy spending time outdoors; camping, exploring and hiking. She has loved raising her family here and loves all the outdoor opportunities that the area has to offer.
